

Draft programme of the 4th DELab UW International Conference

Rethinking Digitalisation of Economies and Societies

17.09.2018, University of Warsaw Library

9:00 Opening of the Conference

Welcome Speech by Prof. Anna GIZA-POLESZCZUK
Vice-Rector for Development of the University of Warsaw

9:10 Keynote Speaker – Aleksandra PRZEGALIŃSKA

Center for Collective Intelligence at Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Boston, USA

9:35 Keynote Speaker – Alek TARKOWSKI

Creative Commons Poland, Centrum Cyfrowe

10:00 Keynote Speaker – Katja BEGO

NESTA, UK

10:25 Discussion

10:45 Coffee Break

SESSION 1 (11:00 – 14:15)

RETHINKING DIGITAL SOCIETY

11:00 Krzysztof GUBAŃSKI, University of Warsaw

Smart City – a formatted commodity or a tool of democratization? Two scenarios for the development of contemporary urban policies

11:30 Agnieszka OGROCKA, University of Warsaw

Digital barter – archaic or modern form of exchange? Contemporary practices of non-monetary exchanges facilitated by the Internet

12:00 Weronika PRZECHERSKA, University of Warsaw

Less in the Internet age? How do the new technologies condition minimalist practices?

12:30–12:45 Coffee Break

12:45 Marta GRYBŚ-KABOČIK, University of Economics in Katowice

Digitalisation of consumer behaviour on banking sector – netnography analysis

13:15 DZMITRY BOICHANKA, European Humanities University, Vilnius, Lithuania

The Mouse and the Phone convergence: the service expansion of the informational capitalism

13:45 Anna SKIBA, Joanna PNIEWSKA, Gabriela BUŚ, University of Warsaw

Lawyer-blogger, member of the new tribus

RETHINKING DIGITAL EDUCATION AND CULTURE

11:00 Maria HENKEL, Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf

Digital information literacy in Kindergarten

11:30 Klementyna GIEŻYŃSKA

Generation Z - student expectations for teaching and learning at tertiary educational level

12:00 Agata KOMENDANT-BRODOWSKA, University of Warsaw

Toward computational social sciences education - why is it hard to do, and what to do about it?

12:45 Anna Anetta JANOWSKA, Radosław MALIK, Warsaw School of Economics

Digitizing art. How and why the Polish museums digitise their collections?

13:15 Wojciech HARDY, University of Warsaw, Institute for Structural Research

Does unauthorised digital distribution of comic books displace sales? Evidence from a survey of comics readers

13:45 Łukasz JONAK, University of Warsaw

Crowdsourcing transparency. ChainReact approach to promoting sustainability in supply chains.

14:15–15:00 Lunch

SESSION 2 (15:00 – 18:30)

RETHINKING DIGITAL ECONOMY

15:00 Wojciech PAPROCKI, Warsaw School of Economics
Position of virtual platform operators on the B2C and B2B markets

15:30 Kristof GYÓDI, Łukasz NAWARO, University of Warsaw
Determinants of accommodation prices provided by Airbnb and the hotel industry

16:00 Tymoteusz DOLIGALSKI, Warsaw School of Economics
Multi-sided platforms as a business model

16:30-16:45 Coffee Break

16:45 Przemysław RYŚ, Kristof GYÓDI, University of Warsaw
Modelling the competition between Uber and licensed taxi-drivers: the role of technology and regulation

17:15 Damian ZIĘBA, University of Warsaw
Are demand shocks in Bitcoin contagious? The analysis of the cryptocurrency market

17:45 Mateusz PIETRYKA, University of Warsaw
Calculated deaths. Algorithms of the drone warfare

RETHINKING POLICY AND POLITICS

15:00 Giovanna SANCHEZ NIEMINEN, VTT Technical Research Centre of Finland
Technology and society at automated borders: challenges for the fundamental rights

15:30 Horatiu DRAGOMIRESCU, Bucharest University of Economic Studies, Romania
Fostering the development of information society at country level through concerted engagement of social actors

16:00 Michał PALIŃSKI, University of Warsaw
Preferences towards online privacy: the case of Polish digital natives

16:45 Joanna MAZUR, University of Warsaw
Regulation of Geo-blocking and the problem of low intra-EU iTrade

17:15 Karolina MANIA, Jagiellonian University, Cracow, Poland
Social and legal implications concerning revenge porn and fake porn

17:45 Joanna GOŁOWSKA-BOLEK, University of Warsaw
Redefining the digital Latin America: characteristics, determinants, policy recommendations